

„Be an inventor opportunity“ at Innovation Think Tank

“Be an inventor opportunity” at Innovation Think Tank

Innovation Think Tank labs globally award about 150 “Young Innovator Fellowship” positions to researchers and students, a unique chance to work with Siemens inventors and key experts on technology and strategy projects in our innovation labs. Based on degree of implementation of projects and individual performance incentives of a total sum of 50.000 Euros like last years will be distributed to the teams. 20 positions are open for summer 2017.

Our labs are located in Erlangen, Kemnath, Shanghai, Wuxi, Goa, Oxford, Hofmann Estates and Istanbul.

What are my responsibilities?

To work in an interdisciplinary project team in one or more areas of requirement engineering, product design, experimentation, rapid prototyping, testing etc.
To come up with out of box ideas.
To work as a team member and as a leader in different projects

What do I need to qualify for this job?

- To be open minded and having interest in learning and finding solutions about real world problem in medical engineering.
 - To have the ability to work in an intercultural and interdisciplinary team.
 - To be a student of either- Electrical Engineering, Mechanical engineering, Graphic Design, Mechatronics Engineering, Computer Engineering, Medical Engineering, Biomedical Engineering, Medicine etc.
- The participants of the program need to be a registered students so that they could take part in the programs as interns, fellows, working students or bachelor or master thesis projects.

Send your CV along with the attached questionnaire with subject: “Be an inentor opportunity summer 2017” to innovationthinktank.healthcare@siemens.com